Reasons For Allowance

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's claimed invention distinguishes over the prior art for following reasons.

The independent claims 1, 10, 19, and 25 are allowable over the art of record. None of the references either alone or in combination teach or fairly suggest a system and method for monitoring configuration changes in a document processing device including receiving a configuration change request for an associated document processing device, generating a notification signal, receiving selection data representative of configuration change signal for which administrative notification is desired, testing a received configuration change signal against received selection data, and directing a data representative of the notification signal to at least one supervisor after receipt of a configuration change signal in accordance with an output of the testing as described in claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
